Dear Paul R.-G.

28/11/15

Many thanks for your letter of the 18th.

Ribbon has by now the 10s.!

Good idea to take 2/6d off the current subs, & to ask for contributions. With this we should be able to offer a decent prize.

* This could be for the best essay in English on a Catalan subject, literary, historical or philological.
What do you think? It is no use offering it to the best book as nobody would be able to produce that.

Am quite fit now & playing a lot of tennis at the week-end. It is that blatted

October month which is troublesome to me ("they" say now it may be due to pollen from fungus
— I would not mind if it were rovellous!)

Stagg was here on Friday
as you probably saw, & had a most delightful day
with him.

All the best

Yours

Garth

* Prefer comparative study in either English or Catalan.
