Dear Russell-Gebbett,

Your letter of 18th September has not been answered sooner because I only recently received it on my return here from Portugal.

When I get a chance to see Mrs Entwistle I shall be glad to ask her about the portrait but I think I should say that there have been other requests and that, while she has been very willing to have a portrait lent for reproduction in this country, she has previously not been willing to have any of the few she has sent out of the country for this purpose. However I can but put your request to her and see what she now says.

I shall write to you later about this.

With kindest regards,

Yours sincerely,

P. E. Russell
