

9th May, 1966.

Dear Sir,

I confirm the reservation, made by telephone, on the 6th May, of a private room for the Anglo-Catalan Society's lunch at 1 p.m. on Saturday, 24th September. Members are likely to arrive for sherry at 12.45. We expect the number to be about thirty but we shall let you know the precise number nearer the time. The President of the Society, Professor Arthur Terry, will be writing to you about the menu.

Yours faithfully,

A.D. Deyermond,
Hon. Secretary of the Anglo-Catalan Society.
