Dear Arthur,

Many thanks for your card. I shall alter the dead-line as you suggest.

I have booked for lunch at Martinez, as you will see from the enclosed carbon, but I thought it better to leave negotiations about the menu to you. The four course meal that we had last year cost 25s.; if we had the same meal this time the cost would be 27s.6d. plus 1s. 6d. for coffee and 10 per cent service charge. I suppose that this is about the right standard, so I shall include this price in the circular as an approximate one.

Yours ever,

Professor A.H. Terry,
