Dear Russell-Gabbett,

I have just come back from a visit to Spain and realise that I have not yet answered your letter of some months ago about the possibility of forming some kind of Society to further Anglo-Catalan studies. As you will know, I am personally interested in this matter and shall be glad to give you any support which I can. You probably are aware that arrangements are going ahead for the formation of an Association for teachers of Spanish and I am very anxious that this should be extended to include Catalan as well as Portuguese and Latin-American. I think that this is an important matter and hope that any arrangements for an Anglo-Catalan Association will not conflict with it. It is very important that we should preach to the unconverted!

Yours sincerely,

Alvete Stone
