DEPARTMENT OF SPANISH,

SHEFFIELD 10.

2. iv. 1960.

Dear Brian,

Thanks for your letter enclosing the suggested handout. I had caught sight of Frank's copy, but then he unrolled it and it was only a day or so ago before I saw it. It seems to me very adequate^x and should manage to attract some new members.

Thanks too for the offprint of the review article of Marichal; and I formally acknowledge receipt of Bonafant's cheque. I have sent him his receipt to the Majorca Restaurant.

The Conference seemed to be a success, though such stalwarts as Pierce, Tate and Parker were sorely missed. Brown struck his well out even more than usual, as Paul will explain.

A few points about the Anglo-Celtic Soc:

- 1) could you send the circular to the lectors :
they ought to know of even if they are not yet members. Molas offered me a paper for the September conference, and I showed that it should be acceptable: 19th or 20th of literature, he said, but he wasn't keen on Maragall (see below). Could you get in touch with him?
- 2) It is the Maragall centenary year, and something, i.e. a paper or a discussion, ought to be done about it.
- 3) I have received a letter from a certain Antoni Pons (or perhaps Pous) from Rome asking for particulars of the A-C. S. ~~post~~ scholarship. I seem to have met him at Cantorquios though I can't place him - and he is a friend of Triadó's.
- Joaquim Molas (Liverpool)
— Jordana (Cardiff)
— Pacheco (St. Andrews)

Perhaps we should ask friend Joan's opinion. What do you think?
Have we heard anything from Ramon?

All best wishes to Beth & the children.

As ever,

Jeff

5. A few very minor points: (1) it would be better to accentuate
a la catalana: Ramon Llull, Sagrada familia, Ausiàs;
I suppose it's justified to include Picasso & Falla as Catalans.
(2) The Jocs Florals have been held outside national capitals -
i.e. Perpignan, Cambridge, etc. And the A.C.S. did stop giving a prize for one year, though I agree it would be best not to bother about this.

Enclosed my MCR note.
