Dear Professor Terry:

Thank you for your kind letter. You must forgive me, but I have not been able to answer you at once, because I have been ill until this very moment. I am very sorry for this long delay in answering your letter, but I could not help it.

As I have told you, in my former letter, it will be very important for me to have the scholarship for this summer. So I will thank you very heartily if you can do anything to help me in it.

I will try to look for these two letters of recommendation. It is a little difficult now because, as you probably know, the University is closed, and we don't have very much contact with our professors.

I have not been able to go out during the last days but tomorrow I will go to visit two of my English professors, and I am sure they will write these letters for me.

I am sorry for all the troubles I cause to you. I hope to hear from you very soon.
Many thanks for all.

Yours sincerely

Magdalene Poy
