Dear Mr. Morgan,

Thank you for your letter. I am afraid you are touching on a subject I am not personally acquainted with. I doubt if translations of Guilerà's books exist. I should advise you to consult the bulletins issued by, as well as the library of Canning House, 2 Belgrave Square, London, S.W.1., as well as the catalogue of the Royal Geographical Society in London. Another address which may produce information on recent publications is that of Sr. G.M. Alcoverro, 49 Wentworth Road, London, N.W.11. You could mention my name in connection with this last address.

Yours sincerely,

RBT
