My dear Joe,

Thank you kindly for your two letters of 10th & 15th. I hope you get our notepaper from Paul. By the way, could you let Geoffrey Ribbons have some of it for his treasurer's correspondence. I have written to Stanman with details of Defossari's book.

I'm sorry Defossari can't do it for 1957, but we might get him, as you say, for 1958. The next alternative was Mr B. Bevan, whose address you can get from our members, Miss Peasall. Bevan's work on Spanish as-

Architecture is well known. Good luck!

Yes, the Nebra thing is now fixed up, no thanks to Batista, I can assure you! It has been a bit of a sweat, and since Wilson replied only last week, Cambridge had to be left out of the time-table to be squeezed in now at the last moment!

I can imagine the alignment of forces over the Tripas battle.
Tell T. Waldron I'm behind him all the way.

I need make no comment on "l'affaire Suez"; our diet here for the last two weeks. It's so monamentally stupid that one despairs.
The revelation of one's Tory friends is equally staggering. As ever,

Janet Pierce
