Dear Alan,

forgive me writing to you out of the blue, like this. I only seem to get in contact with you when I want something. I'm hoping to go to Barcelona sometime this year, either at Easter, or in the summer. Could you please let me have the address of the Institut d'Estudis Catalans, plus any other useful contacts you might be able to think of. Do you know anything about the 'Congrés de cultura catalana' from whom I received a circular letter recently addressed to Cramleigh School. Since I left 5 years ago. I would have thought if they were part of the normal IEC, anglo-cat. soc. set-up they would have a more recent address than that. Finally, can you recommend cheap accommodation; digs, or families who might be prepared to put up with a paying guest for one week?

Sorry about all that? You don't fancy coming to Ston again do you? If the Anglo-Catalan society is thinking of moving back to London I might be prepared to produce something mechanical for it if you are interested.

How is the family? As you can see we've moved and are now resplendently housed in a crumbling six bedroom flat.

We also now have 3 children. The latest edition is Joanna, born 7th September last year.

Hope all is well with you, Love to the family from all of us, Yours Nick,
(Fassmidge).
