

20

THE ANGLO-CATALAN SOCIETY

June, 1977

Department of Hispanic Studies
The University
Sheffield S10 2TN

FIRST CIRCULAR

Dear Colleague,

The Society's next Annual Conference will be held at Birkbeck College, Malet Street, London WC1, on Saturday and Sunday, 29th - 30th October, 1977. Proceedings will begin with the Annual Lunch, at a venue to be arranged (suggestions would be welcomed), on Saturday, October 29th. A programme is being organized which will include papers on Catalan language, history and economics. Other contributions from members, particularly on literary topics, are hereby invited for consideration by the Committee. I should be grateful to receive proposals as soon as possible and, in any event, not later than July 31st. A Second Circular containing full details of the Conference will be sent out in September.

The Anglo-Catalan Society has made a corporate subscription to the Congrés de Cultura Catalana. I have a supply of programmes and subscription forms which I shall be pleased to send on request to anyone wishing to take out individual membership.

The Spring 1977 issue of Vida Hispánica (Journal of the Association of Teachers of Spanish and Portuguese) is a special number devoted to Catalan Studies. It has been produced in collaboration with the Anglo-Catalan Society and contains contributions on Catalan history, language and literature. Copies are available to members of the Society at the special price of 65p. each (including postage). Orders should be addressed to me, and cheques/P.O.s should be made out to the Anglo-Catalan Society.

Yours sincerely,

Alan Yates

Alan Yates

Hon. Secretary