

Villa Varese,
Rocca di Papa (Rome)

17th April 62

Dear Brian,

Glad to hear you're coming to Rome in August. Unless something unexpected happens (an essential proviso in my present job. I never know when I'm likely to be sent off on a trip) I expect I'll be here, and I am looking forward to seeing you both then. Indeed, you must come out to the hills and meet the family, and spend a day recovering from the rigours of Roman heat in August. Is there anything I can do by way of helping find accommodation or anything? Just let me know. I know one or two Reuniones which might suit (Lit 2000 each, 6.46.) but they are likely to be heavily booked.

I have been trying to get hold of Romaglia for some time, but it's simply amazing how difficult & time-consuming it is to get anything done in Rome ~ in particular to track anyone down. As for Battori, could you let me have his address. I haven't been able to track him down either, so far (truth to tell, I've been so snowed under with work I haven't had too much time to look for anyone until now ~ and now the Easter hell sets in).
As soon as I have this I'll try to plead the cause of a paper for the A.-C.S.

All the best in the meantime ~

Amadon
