Dear Paul,

Thank you for your frequent communications. I have just got back from a very enjoyable, lazy and expensive holiday en terres germaniques. I can now — with a certain effort — give my mind to other things than Austrian beef, Wiener schnitzel's (what is the plural?), mountains and yodelling.

I shall of course be at the luncheon on the 24th, though I'm glad not to have to deputise for you. I've just sent — the slip to Bonafont.

The financial position is simple enough: last year we had 34 members, so far this year we have 3 new members

& two old members have paid in advance.
Expenses have been something over £9, including your 15/-, leaving about £8 clear from last year + £2-10-0
for this year.

I am off to Sheffield for visits on Tuesday, but will be back in London in about a week. One fine day I must do some work - but let's hope we've had all our five days for this year!

Amuse yourself with your fincée.

Tu yo,

Geoffrey.

I've just sent off proofs of some reviews for Esthetis romanicis IV - a month after they arrived. My forwarding apparatus went wrong!
