Dear Miss Whitaker,

Thank you for your kind letter of 10th April in which you enclosed copies of your special menus.

As you probably discovered during our visit to The Regency Hotel we are rather "awkward customers" and I wonder if I could ask you to let me have a quotation for a menu for 14th November next, which is something of a combination of dishes from those you programme. It could be as follows:

Smoked Salmon Pâté

Tournedos Rossini

Parisienne Potatoes

Courgettes Provençale and Green Beans

Coupe Jacques

Coffee

I should also add that we found most of your menus suitable for the kind of luncheon we usually put on, and the suggested menu is in no sense a rejection of what you offer, but merely a means of combining expressed preferences by members of our committee.

We greatly enjoyed meeting you and having your company at lunch on 2nd April. Thank you for your kindness and attention.

With all good wishes,

Yours sincerely,

Geoffrey J. Walker
