My dear Tate

Thanks very much for sending me a draft of the regulations for the Anglo-Catalan scholarship.

I think it incorporates all the points mentioned in our meeting last September & of course,
I approve these regulations.

The next question is — how to make them known in Catalonia? Probably the first step would be to compile a list of names & addresses in Barcelona & elsewhere of people in a position to help us to whom we could send copies of the regulations. The I. d' E. C. will help. Will the British Institute help?

A point in connection with the Jocs Florals prize offered by the A-C.S. since 1956. These translations of English poems remain scattered & unknown. Would it be possible to collect them & get a Barcelona publisher to publish them in a small book? Perhaps the publishers of "Ossa Menor", a series of books of poems, will be interested.

Has our Secretary done anything in connection with the publication in the Times of information on the A-C.S.?

With kind regards

Yours
W. Batistai Roca

P.S. I do not know whether you read that Prof. Hubera was run over by a car the other day. His right leg was broken just under the knee; this was his most serious injury, apart from general mauling.

He is getting on very well, but will have to remain in hospital for another two or three weeks.

It was a narrow scrape. He was very lucky!
