Dear Alan,

Thank you for your note about the circulars. You seem to have covered pretty well everybody from the list of extra people I sent you, and I haven't much really in the way of comments.

As regards Pacheco you could find out where he has gone to from Douglas Gifford in St. Andrews, or better, from the secretary of the Spanish Department there. Douglas has, I think, already gone away to Latin America. I discover that you did send me Peter Rycroft's cheque; I was misled because he was not in my receipt book - the reason being that you had sent him a receipt. I have a vague idea that Clifford Gans had left the Society but I have no note of it and his subscription was certainly paid for the current session. I think that Alcoverro pays it on his behalf.

That really does seem to cover everything. Have a good vac., see you sometime.

Yours ever,

Paul
