My dear Tate,

It was gracious of you to invite us both to the 8th Annual Conference of the Anglo-Catalan Society.

Unfortunately, the schedules at Berkeley and at near-by Stanford are so tight as to force us to be back on our jobs very shortly after the inaugural Congress of the larger group, i.e., by the middle of September.

We do hope to meet you at Oxford in early September, though.

With cordial regards,

yours faithfully,

Yakov Malkiel
