Dear Max,

July

I am sorry to let you know that Mr. Rafael Bori did die in his sleep on Monday 13th 1981. He was cremated on Friday 17th 1981 in Basigstoke.

His son did wish a very simple and familiar ceremony according to the wishes of his late father.

It is sad such a departure however it is hoped that his example during the military uprising of 1936, specially in checking the anti-loyalist forces and anti-constitutional hordes, and in exile will make possible, at least in my modest opinion, that other persons specially the youth, will continue to fight Franco's Kingdom imposed by arms and not democratic elections.

Yours sincerely,

Pelegri
