Dear Paul,

Sorry I haven't answered your letters before. Mrs Grant sent the BBC letter back straightaway, and we sent it off the same day. It came, I remember, between your two letters of the 20 and 25 June. Any reply so far? Could you let us have 20 copies of the letter which FWP will then send, with a covering note, to all Heads of Department?

Your work on the fate of luckless Latins who see fit to visit this wet country of ours seems helpful. I sent the 3/6 to the British Vigilant in King's Road. What are they vigilant about, by the way? Not Poujadist, I hope.

Glad the report is making progress. I'm glad the Treasurer has nothing to do except embezzle the funds and get them back quickly in an emergency.

Domesticity remains pleasant but work-ful. And next week 55<sup>0</sup> G.C.E. scripts descend upon me; they are Ordinary - very O. I expect- and I'm beginning to wonder why on earth I took the thing on. As soon as I finish, I go to Spain, nominally for research, in fact for a rest. Madrid from August 2nd to 24th, Barcelona Aug. 24 to Sept. 3rd, approx. Then to Paris and Cologne with wife. Shall I see you in the Peninsula?

Adéu, fins que el sol brilli.
