6th July, 1961.

Dr. J.M. Batista i Roca,
5 Lyndewode Road,
Cambridge.

Dear Batista,

Thank you very much for your letter and the one enclosed from Pearse Hutchinson, which I return. He seems a most interesting and enthusiastic chap, worthy of help, and I am very glad that you can see your way to helping him financially, and even more pleased that you should wish to do it through the Society. I think your idea of naming it a joint scholarship of the A.C.S. and the I.E.C. is a good one. I suppose he would receive the money in the usual way through your brother in Barcelona?

I see that Hutchinson has been working fairly exclusively in the area of University College, Dublin. I am sure that if he had had any contacts with Riley in the Spanish Department of Trinity, he would have been put in contact with Arthur Terry. Indeed, I feel he ought to get in touch with him anyway. Would you give him Terry's address or shall I? (Spanish Department, Queen's University Belfast or 17 Chlorine Gardens, Malone Road, Belfast).

Thank you very much for the offers of papers. Would it be possible for Barrass to widen his scope a little. It seems just a trifle narrow to me as it stands. As far as Gaudí is concerned, I am writing to Pevsner to see if he will talk. If not, I shall do it myself. In all that will make 5 papers so far.

Hope this letter catches you,

As ever,

B.

P.S. Has Llubera arrived yet in Cambridge?
