Dear
12th November, 1982

Dear Colleague,

The Committee meeting of the A.-C.S. will take place at 9.30 a.m. on Saturday 20th November at the Instituto de España.

- Agenda:
1. Future subs rate.
 2. Nominations for committee vice Dr Giner and Prof. Pierce.
 3. Socis protectors; appointment of a representative in Barcelona.
 4. Scholarship and Jocs Florals prizes.
 5. 1983, 1984 meetings. Masgot?
 6. ACSOP.
 7. Centre for Catalan Studies.
 8. Any other business.

Please make sure to arrive promptly; we shall only have about 45 minutes for discussion. The first Saturday morning conference session will begin at 10.30.

All our guests have confirmed attendance: Max Cahner expects to arrive on Saturday morning; the other guests will be present from Friday evening.

Approximately 75 people have booked for lunch, and an additional 10 or so for the meetings.

I have written to Pelegrín Esteve advising him that it would be imprudent of him to attend the sessions at the Instituto de España; I have had no reply, so am hoping for the best.

All best wishes,

Max
