

UNIVERSITY OF LONDON KING'S COLLEGE

TEMPLE BAR 5454.

STRAND, W.C.2.

11.11.58

I was just going to write to Paris about the A.-C.S. prize for the Joes Florak, but I now realize there's one point I'm not quite clear about. Am I right in assuming that, as on preceding occasions, we'll be offering the prize for "la millor traducció inèdita d'un poema o poemes de l'anglès"? I suppose this is what it'll have to be, but as it was not explicitly mentioned at the AGM, I'd rather like to have your views. Sorry to keep bombarding you with queries!

Amadeu

I've just seen Parker, who tells me

He's written to you to-day about the possibility of Rique being here for the S.-C. S. Conference, if he is indeed coming to Bristol (for the sum) at the beginning of the summer term. I presume you'll be getting in touch with Metford (I've never yet met him). Do let me know if it looks a real possibility.
 Rique would obviously be most suitable!

ARL