Dear Mr. Russell,

We beg to confirm the telegram we sent you this morning. We have reserved our private room for your Party of the 29th September and will supply a Lunch similar to that of the last year, at 10/- per person, excluding beverage.

The private room is also booked for another Party in the evening of the same date and I presume you will not mind to vacate the room not later than 6 p.m. Should you wish to stay here longer, perhaps you would not mind to use our Lounge.

I trust you will enjoy your well deserved Holiday.

With kindest regards,
Yours sincerely,

O. Bonafont
