Dear Mr Walker,

Further to our telephone conversation of this afternoon, I would like to confirm that our library, which can hold up to 80 people, is at your disposal on either 14th or 21st november 1981, from 2.00 p.m. until 7.00 p.m. The Institute being closed on Saturdays, you will have to pay for our porter to stay while you are in the building : (£3.60 an hour at present).

As I told you on the telephone, we have no facilities for holding lunch for 70 people. However, we can arrange a 'bar' in the reception for an informal drink and get-together after the meeting.

I look forward to hearing from you and await your decision concerning the date.
