Dear Ron,

Many thanks for your letter of 17th. I'm delighted you have the Conference arrangements so well in hand, and write only to make the following suggestions.

1. When you send out circulars, will you please send one to the girl who has had one of the ACS scholarships this year and is still in London. She is

Srta. María Josefa Olivé Pérez,
Cecil Residential Club, Room 4D, 195 North Gower St., Euston Rd,
London NW 1.

2. On the assumption that Matthew and Forey are not going to reply soon, will you start on Linehan? I had a half, well, maybe a quarter promise, from him that he would talk, on the Lateran Reforms in the Corona de Aragón; and with a little pressure I think he would.

3. Remember Alan's suggestion about circulating information about the conference among the London Medieval Society members.

No more news for now. I am full of admiration for your summer's efforts, having spent 20 minutes the other day transplanting a bush - an unsatisfying occupation. Spain was fine; I did almost no work in 7 weeks of sunshine ; and shall return for Oct 20-22 jamboree.

All best wishes,

Devek
