Dear Dr. George,

Alan Yates, of Sheffield University, has been kind enough to put me in contact with you, and I am writing in the hope that you can reply to a couple of queries.

In the first place, I would be grateful for as much information as you can give me about the aims and activities of the Anglo-Catalan Society.

I am at present a postgraduate YEL student at the University of Ulster, where my course includes certain aspects of sociolinguistics. Having lived in Catalunya for a considerable time, I am interested in studying in some depth aspects of the evolution of the position of the Catalan language since the 1978 Constitution and the achievement of autonomy, as well as the Generalitat's linguistic policy — what it involves, the difficulties it faces, and so on.

So I would be grateful if you would also let me know whether the Anglo-Catalan Society is in a position either to provide me with relevant material or to offer help and advice on obtaining it.

With many thanks in advance,

Yours sincerely,

Mel Fraser
