Dear Brian,

Your letter of the 7th
has been forwarded here.

I shall be delighted & feel honoured to chair Batista's talk on the 13th.

I would be glad of the summary when I get back to Oxford on the 5th.

We are having a fantastically wonderful weather & taking full advantage of it, to brace ourselves for the next two conferences, where I look forward to seeing

you. Kindly, regards
for Elizabeth &
myself.

As ever,

A handwritten signature in cursive script, appearing to be 'John', with a long, sweeping underline.
