

IBERIAN SOCIAL STUDIES ASSOCIATION

NINTH ANNUAL CONFERENCE

UNIVERSITY OF KEELE, APRIL 20-22 1979

THEME: REGIONALISM IN SPAIN AND PORTUGAL

Programme

Friday April 20

- 2.00 p.m. Insider and outsider views of ethnic nationalism
Ned Thomas (University College of Wales, Aberystwyth)
- 4.00 p.m. A federal solution for Iberia?
Prof. Gonzalo Sáenz de Buruaga (Director of Regional Planning, Spanish Ministry of Economic Affairs; former Professor of Economic Structure, Universidad Autónoma de Madrid)

Saturday April 21

- 9.30 a.m. to 12.30 p.m. Regional planning and development in Portugal
Dr. Luis Francisco Valente de Oliveira (Minister of Education, Portuguese Government; former Director of Planning Commission of the Northern Region)
Prof. Jorge Gaspar (Head of Department of Geography, University of Lisbon)
Prof. Manuel Porto (University of Coimbra; Director of Planning Commission of the Central Region)
- 2.00 p.m. The impact of immigrants in Catalunya
Prof. Amando de Miguel (Professor of Sociology and Vice-Dean, University of Barcelona)
- The social structure of Catalunya
Dr. Salvador Giner (Head of Department of Sociology, Brunel University)
- 4.00 p.m. Elementos de persistencia y cambio en la ideología del nacionalismo vasco 1876-1976
Prof. Antonio Elorza Domínguez (Cátedra de Historia del Pensamiento Español, Facultad de Ciencias Políticas y Sociología, University of Madrid)

Saturday April 21 (cont.)

4.00 p.m.

Euzkadi: a pragmatic approach

George Hills (author of Spain; Franco: The Man and His Nation, etc.)

Sunday April 22

9.15 a.m.

Autonomy for Andalusia

Dr. José Javier Rodríguez Alcaide (Deputy to the Cortes; Coordinador Científico del Instituto de Desarrollo Regional, University of Sevilla)

Dr. Pedro Alcudia (Department of Economics, University of Málaga)

11.00 a.m.

The myth of Castile as a region

Prof. Joseph B. Aceves (Department of Sociology and Social Anthropology, Virginia Polytechnic Institute and State University)

* * *

Notes

The Conference will begin with lunch on Friday, April 20 and will end after lunch on Sunday, April 22. Accommodation will be provided on the Keele campus in University Halls of Residence. The charge for the whole Conference period, including all meals and refreshments, VAT and a small fee to cover administrative costs, is £25.00. Arrangements can be made for colleagues not able to attend for the entire meeting.

Each session in the academic programme will last for an hour and a half, including at least half an hour for discussion. One or two of the papers listed in the programme above may be transferred to evening sessions, in order to allow the fullest benefit to be obtained from adequate presentation and discussion.

For further information and booking forms write to: Dr. John Naylor, Centre for Iberian Studies, University of Keele, Keele, Staffordshire, ST5 5BG, England (telephone: 0782 - 621111, extension 287).