Dear Sir,

I should like to know about the activities, publications and other resources of the Arrels Catalan Society and, particularly, if you have a branch in London.

My interest is as follows. My great great grandfather was Ildefonso Cerdà and my grandfather, Charles Richardson, wrote a Catalan Grammar. We have not been able to trace where or when this was published. He was in Argentina when he wrote it and it may have been published there.

I look forward to hearing from you.

Yours sincerely

M. Kirschen
