Note

All meals will be taken at Musgrave House - with the exception of luncheon on the Sunday; all sessions will be held in New College. It is hoped that morning coffee may be made available to delegates in New College or elsewhere.

accommodation for all delegates requiring this has been booked at Musgrave House, 1 South Parks Road. The inclusive cost, from dinner on Friday 15th to breakfast on Sunday 17th April, is 37/6d. (or, from lunch on Saturday 16th to breakfast the following day, £1). It is requested that delegates pay Miss Fairbairn individually for their accommodation. Drinks are not available in Musgrave House, but may be brought in.

Roebuck luncheon (Sunday, 17th April, at 1 p.m.). The cost of this luncheon will be not more than 8/- per head, exclusive of drinks. It is requested that this sum be handed to the Treasurer, Mr. Geoffrey Ribbons (together with any subscription due), as soon as possible before the meal.

Directions: (1) Musgrave House. From the station take a No. 1 'bus to Catte Street. Thence proceed on foot along Catte Street and its continuation Parks Road, and South Parks Road is the first turning on the right. Number 1, labelled "Musgrave House," lies some 60 yards down it on the right hand side.

(2) New College, etc. Other directions (Musgrave House to Fyfield Road, Musgrave House to New College, New College to the Roebuck) will be posted up in Musgrave House.

Important Note. Will those who have already notified the Secretary of their intention to attend the Conference kindly inform as soon as possible Mr. Robert Pring-Mill of their intended date and time of arrival.
