

From the Nuffield Professor of Orthopaedic Surgery

Telephone 64811

1. January, 1962.

Dear Tate,

Thank you for your letter of 29. December. I have been experiencing great difficulty in finding accommodation for the participants of the Anglo-Catalan Conference, as it seems to clash with many other conferences being held in Oxford that week-end.

However, I think I have succeeded in obtaining accommodation at Pembroke College. The Bursar is abroad until the middle of this month and I am still awaiting confirmation, but his secretary tells me that the college is not booked for that week-end.

Happy New Year.

Yours sincerely,

A handwritten signature in cursive script, appearing to read "J. Trueta".

J. TRUETA.

Professor R.B. Tate,
Department of Spanish,
The University,
Nottingham.