Evening & Borno courses?

14 February 1986

Dear Dr Wheeler

I was interested to see reference to your Society, in the literature accompanying the Homage to Barcelona exhibition. For some years I have been looking out for Catalan language courses though it seems as if they are all University based. I wonder therefore if you are in a position to refer me to any short introductory courses, either here or in Catalunya, which I could undertake during holidays?

I am more than occupied at work so a 3-4 week course is the maximum I could afford in time or money. I would especially welcome courses that made reference to popular culture and, ideally, to social and community institutions or rural developments. I have Spanish fluency, albeit rusty, and did take a few Catalan lessons at Durham several years ago.

I hope you can give me a few leads and I look forward to hearing from you in due course.

Yours sincerely
