Dear Mr George

Further to our correspondence in June, when we jointed your Society, I now enclose list of members coming on our study trip to Barcelona, 23 - 30 October, which I thought might interest you.

Incidentally, while I was in Barcelona I had the good fortune to be shown copies of a UNESCO magazine called Catalan (or was it Catalonia?) Culture and ever since I have been failing to carry out my intention to say not only how valuable I found its content but also how pleasurable it was to read the English translations.

I would be most grateful if you would be kind enough to tell whoever is responsible, how appreciative one casual reader is.

Incidentally, is it possible to acquire copies in the UK - and if so, how?

Many thanks,

Yours sincerely

Raymond Plummer
