Dear Paul,

It looks as though I may have difficulty - after all it was in the Conference of my husband (as a) set aside for his few days holiday at that time. I have to go back to see my mother (my father died last year, there is a lot of business I have to attend to). What it means is this - please don't book accommodation for me and I shall do my utmost to come on the Saturday. I only wish I could be here and only the last evening business would keep me away!

Yours Helen Grant.
