Dear Max,

I have just read in El catala' a Europa i a Amèrica your & Alan's contribution to it. I feel I must congratulate you on the job you have done.
You have presented the past and present "catalanisme britànic" in a most attractive, well informed way. As regards the future I think your last paragraph points to an optimistic future. It would be absolutely wonderful if a "Centre B. d'Estudis Catalans" were possible. Let us hope that the Generalitat can find its way to make the dream possible.

Again, congratulations.

Com sempre,

John

P.S. Bardià & wife were here on Tuesday-Wednesday. His visit was a success & Ian Michael gave us a nice lunch at Exeter, with the Vice-Chancellor present. Bardià appreciated this very much.
