My dear Joe,

Thanks for yours and for the draft of the minutes and other announcements. I have mislaid your actual letter but hope I am covering all your points. If not, kindly let me know.

Geoffrey Ribbans and I have looked over the draft and find it admirable. We have made certain additions, which I hope are clear, although made in pencil. My contribution includes a statement of the BBC programmes question to date. I personally don't think we'll get anywhere by arranging a delegation to the FO, altho' I have been told to try it by the Society. Sloman, too, feels as I do, altho' he would be willing to help. I'd never get Parker or Wilson or Russell, each for different reasons. I'm sure the best thing is to get an MP to ask questions after the Suez business has begun to settle down. Could you also add a note about trying to get Pevsner and attempts now to get Bevan? Geoffrey has suggested an addition about Riba's actual visit, with a list of the places he visited (I've corrected the order, but hope you can make it out). I suppose we should try to get this whole statement out soon. Geoffrey also asks for some note-paper and gives information about the payment of subs.

If there is anything else, Joe, do let me know. We were at an end-of-term dance last night with Gregorio and Shirley Weber. They're both well.

Amb l'expressió més sincera dels nostres millors vots per Nadal i l'Any Nou a tota la família,

As ever,

Frank Paine
