Dear Mr Thur,

Thanks for letter of 8th May; herewith hasty reply.

I gathered there had been a hoo-hah about Campbell Hall, since I met Alan Deyermund in London while we were both belatedly engaged on the year's work. I can send £10 to Connaught Hall, and since you have made a firm booking I shall do so at once.

I showed your letter to Brian and he confirmed my feeling that 20 was rather a large figure; we both think that 15 would be nearer the mark, i.e. that we could just about expect to fill 75% of 15 places. It is pretty difficult to see that as many places as possible are filled if we just haven't the support - and I don't think we have. Is it too late to reduce the number?

About circulars. Yes, we can still get them cyclostyled here without undue travail. I think too that we could send a notice direct from here, since I have a list of members (in the "Treasurer's Handbook" bequeathed to me by Geoff), and I am quite willing to see to that.

OK then. I'll send the £10 off, leaving it to you to alter, if you think it's feasible or desirable, the number of persons for whom accommodatⁿ is requested. Bring the notices in the post when they're ready and I'll do (or have done!) the rest.

Cordialment et saluda

Paul.
