Dear Mr. Russel Gibberd,

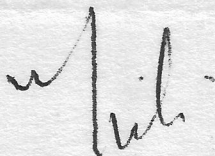

Thank you very much for your letter of the 7th and for your cheque. I enclose a receipt herewith.

The Dialectologia has gone separately.

I was wondering myself how it was that after our good resolutions at that lunch, that nothing was happening. I am writing to Batista to give him a push. Were you going to write the draft of the letter, or was it Batista, or was it someone else? I shall ask Batista to send you a draft of the letter to have your suggestions, then I could ask Trueta, I could have a look at it also, and then we could get started. There was enough goodwill in that meeting to warrant a concrete step, and you particularly were most helpful and enthusiastic.

With kind regards,

Yours sincerely,

*See to this;
prepare letter to await
Gili and advise Batista.*
