Dear Alcoverro,

I wrote to Jordi Vilanova on 8th May last. Could you possibly find out if he got the letter this time, as I fear it may have gone astray again? I did use the London address 65 Carysfort Road, N.16. I have also asked the Post Office to investigate.

Yours,

Brian Tate

Dear Prof. Tate,

Your above letter: Vilanova has just been contacted. He has received your letter in due course. Circulars are being printed and you will have them in a day or two. He thought that the best answer to your letter was to send the circulars.

So, everything is in order,
Sincerely,

G.M. Alcoverro
