Dear Dr. Yates,

My tutor Dr. Henry Ettinghausen has advised me to write to you about the study of Catalan in U.S.A.

I am a final year student, taking Catalan Literature as a special subject, and would like to apply for a post-graduate course in U.S.A - probably a Masters Degree. I have not been able to find any mention of Catalan at the Universities that offer Spanish courses, and indeed am not sure where to write for information. Dr. Stillinghousen has told me that there is a new alliance between the Anglo-Catalan Society and U.S.A., and thought that you might be able to recommend me somewhere, or tell me where I should make enquiries.

I look forward to hearing from you, and thank you for your help.

Yours sincerely,

Rosemary Squire.
