Dear Paul,

Thank you for a very pleasant day on Saturday. I enjoyed the whole day - the town, the University, the robustious company at your digs - many thanks to your landlady (per a no parlar de la filla), by the way - and of course the drinking spree at the end. Unfortunately, the sudden change of temperature seems to have given me a touch of flu; and I had a pretext for staying in bed most of yesterday. Today has been much better & by luck is a lectureless day, and I have busied myself <sup>one of</sup> my favourite activities: idleness.

Here are the addresses I promised you:

Sr. J. Manyé,
15 Cresswell Gardens
London S.W.5.

† Enlli Giralt i Raventós,
Carrer dels Ferrers, 18,
Vilafanca del Penedès
(Barcelona).

I've just thought: surely Sloman got a report automatically as a Head of Department?

Prof. J.B. Trend has just coughed up 10/- : 22 in all.

I'll let you know if we manage to play the tape & have any comments
to make.
