Dear Alan,

Thank you for sending me the protest letter which I have duly signed & sent to Nisa Torrents.<sup>x</sup> Harold Hall & Norman Lamb also signed it. On the whole I think it better for Joan Lewis not to do so, both because it's risky & because a British protest is more effective.

I was asked to organise a letter by a Catalan friend in Geneva & was about to do so - but I was slower off the ground than the rest of you.

Look forward to seeing you next time.

Yours,

Geoffrey
