Dear Dr. Yates,

I've just learnt that the play readings of modern 'Spanish' drama at the Soho Poly will take place during the weeks - 13 - 17 November. I'll try and arrange for the Ceballos plays to be read on 16th or 17th November to coincide with or anticipate the ACS conference. Let me know when you have to send out details, so we can get some publicity for the reading & let all members know about it.

Since I am not yet sure whether or not 17th November will be a playreading day, I would be most grateful if I did not have to give my

'report on progress' on this Friday.

Of course, I'll be here at the LSE
on the Saturday.

Several people are reading your Daily Daring.

Atkinson,

John Lonsdale.
