Dear Paul,

A quick note to ask you if you'd be interested in giving a little talk to a poetic conference — a sort of minor Jocs Florals — in a little Catalan village, near Vic, called Cantongros. Triadó, of whom you must have heard if not actually met, runs the show, & last year asked me to give a little 10-minute chat, which seemed to go down fairly well; I afterwards turned a sly penny by broadcasting it on the Catalan Service of the BBC! Anyway, this year Triadó is looking for another English Catalanist & has asked me for suggestions. If you would like to do it — and I assure you

it's quite fun, and could be on tap on August 14th, I'll mention you to Triadh. If not, let me know please.

As for A-C. So business, I feel the conference was a great success. The night at Sili's after your lamented departure, was very pleasant: I hope the girl-friend was sufficient compensation.
Funds have been rather depleted by the do, though - just £7 without counting what I owe you - let me know about that.
Pimp-Mill's expensive telegrams ~~and~~, etc. added 25/- to costs. Still, it was worth it...

Soon per avui. I'll write later when term's under way & I feel the need to get away for a day (note the mines by Sull.)

Till then,

Your money-bearer,

Geoff.
