Dear Brian,

Thanks for your letter about the A-C do in Oxford. It does not seem to me that we can really change dates now. It is also not likely that we shall have many people from the US. I feel we should stick to arrangements already made.

I have now sent off all the circulars you let me have, but it seems I miscalculated. Could you yourself send off one to each of the following:

- 2 P Prof. Jules Horrent
38 rue des Buissons
Liège
Belgium
- 2 P Sr D C.J. Gela
Jose Villalonga 87
Palma de Mallorca
Spain
- 2 P Prof. A. Zamora Vicente
Amado Nervo, 3
Madrid-7
Spain
- 2 P Prof. J. Corominas
Dept. of Romance Langs.
Univ. of Chicago
Chicago(Ill).
USA

Our work over our own second circular has been hellish and it is just now coming to an end. I must, therefore, end this in a very short and abrupt way, if you'll pardon me. I'm glad Arthur has now got the chair at QUB. Riley, CC Smith and Glendenning as well as Geoffrey Ribbons are applying for Southampton.

Our best to Beth(who, we hope, is now better), the kids and yourself,

As ever,

Frank
