

From the Nuffield Professor of Orthopaedic Surgery

Telephone 64811

17. January, 1962.

Dear Tate,

Thank you for your letter. I think it would be nice if you drop a line of thanks to the Bursar of Pembroke for his kind help. Perhaps you could add a word about the 12. and 13. September at the same time. If we fail to get rooms for these dates there then I will approach Worcester again.

I would be glad if the following people in Oxford could receive an invitation:

- ✓ W. Deakin Esq., Warden,
St. Anthony's College, Oxford.
- ✓ Professor Sir Isiah Berlin,
All Souls College, Oxford.
- ✓ Professor Sir Robert Macintosh,
Pembroke College.

Yours sincerely,

A handwritten signature in dark ink, appearing to read "J. Trueta".

J. TRUETA.

Professor B. Tate,
Department of Spanish,
The University,
Nottingham.