Dear Russell-Jebbett

I stayed on at Cambridge longer than I anticipated, so when I came to London about a week ago I found here your letters of March 16th, 23rd & 31st waiting for me. Later your letter of April 7th arrived, & meanwhile
I paid a visit to Oxford.
I saw Jili, & Trueta before leaving for Barcelona.

So everything seems to be set for the Conference, & much of the credit for its organisation will go to our very efficient Secretary & the rest to Pring. Mill.

The absences will be very much regretted, but the spirit is high among those who will attend.

A number of Catalans from London, unable to attend the whole Conference will come on Sunday. Even so, we can ask them to become members & they will gladly pay the 10/- I understand, however, that a small number of new members have applied for inscription already.

It is too late now, but I wonder whether it would not have <sup>been</sup> better to have had Pring-mill to read his paper, instead of mine. I offered mine only as a stop gap. On the other hand, while Cambridge is represented, no paper will be coming from Oxford.

It seems a very good idea to have a Committee meeting. There are a few points which may be discussed, perhaps the most important being to prepare well ahead the programme for next year.

Mrs. Grant has asked whether a resumé of the papers could not be duplicated after the Conference.

I just got a letter enquiring whether we may like to hold the Jocs Florals in this country in 1956. Prof. Trend was very keen to have them at Cambridge.

Looking forward to see you & with best regards

Yours sincerely

M. Batistai Roca
