Dear Paul,

Replied 19/4/56

I reply in haste to your letter addressed here (the one sent to Sheffield hasn't reached me yet). I enclose reply to the circular, a résumé of my talk (I don't remember how long you asked for - hope this will do; I'll write something longer for the summary sent round later to all members).

Your ideas about accommodation seem fine. Of course, Batista is wrong about Friday, and I hadn't the gumption to see it. The four papers, including Hibbert, will be ample. Where have you fitted Tate in?

There is one other point. Gubern wants to speak for about 10 minutes (I think) about the origins of the Jocs Florals. He told me when I saw him in Liverpool some time back, and I forgot to tell you about it. But it's a very small thing of topical interest, and as it doesn't seem to involve discussion, shouldn't be difficult to squeeze in.

As far as Pevsner's concerned, if we have him at all, it will have to be a public affair, I think. This scheme would cover very nicely the missió de divulgació that some members have and I am for it - IF you can persuade him to come. He, of course, doesn't know anything about it, and I'll be very surprised if he will accept, but do write and ask him, offer 1st Class fare & hotel (but ask if he wants to stay in a college - he's an ex- Slade Prof.)!

humbly - he's a V.I.P. - if he will, and then turn on the Cambridge publicity. Cubern's thing, by the way, will solve the problem of something in Catalan. The sherry party is a good idea - but Wilson will still have to pay his subscription!

You're right to stand up for our sub.
rights, but in the event I think we can take a tolerant view of people who are in Cambridge for the Jocs and not resident in this country.

To be a bit more definite - I would suggest Cubern's paper squeezed in on Sat.
morning, after mine, and Tate's on Sunday morn, between the masses of Masses.

Ja tot ho és tot - as Maragall said in a famous line.

Fins aviat, si B. i K. (sorry!

Are there any money problems? We have some £34 (-£10-10-0 prize) in the kitty.
What about meals? Are we having any together? Any ideas? We might supply wine at some such occasion (cf. Nott'ham)
