Dear Paul,

Many thanks for your letter; I was about to write to you, actually, but things just don't get done at this stage of the term.

I hope this letter will reach you before you send off the minutes. I suggest that you send off the enclosed receipts^x with them, and in other cases put in a short request for the subscription.

If you haven't already incorporated this into the text of the minutes, I'll get something duplicated here and send it ~~along~~ them off myself. But I don't want to have to send off too many otherwise worthless letters which will eat away our funds to no purpose. ^x apart from the enclosed, Pierce, Comet & I have paid.

The extra names, in any case, will be useful. I've just thought of one that you might add:

Prof. Baxter,
St. Mary's College,
St. Andrews, Fife.

We are looking forward to seeing you up here whenever you can make it.
Let us know.

Frank wrote to Atkinson the other day asking him to form a parallel Portuguese Society. The reply was coded in the extreme: he does approve of conferences at all, & hydra-headed ones are of course worse. He won't be at the conference next March, it seems.

All the best: fins are.

Yours ever,

Geoff.
