

ANGLO-CATALAN SOCIETY NINTH ANNUAL CONFERENCE, 1963

Queen's University,
Belfast.

Dear Colleague,

The programme for the ninth Annual Conference, to be held at Connaught Hall, 41, Tavistock Square, London, W.C.1, will be as follows:

Friday evening, 27th September      Members staying at Connaught Hall arrive.

Saturday, 28th September

8-30 a.m.      Breakfast

10-0 a.m.      Mrs T. Barrass, University of Cambridge: The background of the 1532 Catalan translation of the Old Testament.

11-30 a.m.      A. Pacheco, University of St Andrews: La istòria de Jacob Xalabín i el seu marc històric.

1-0 p.m.      Annual Lunch and General Meeting. (See note (a) below)

6-30 p.m.      Supper

7-30 p.m.      R.D.F. Pring-mill, University of Oxford: Some aspects of the Llibre d'Amic e Amat.

Sunday, 29th September

8-30 a.m.      Breakfast

10-0 a.m.      Geoffrey Walker, University of Cambridge: A Catalan contraband-trading company in Peru headed by the viceroy, the Marquès de Castellidorsius.

11-30 a.m.      Dr. J.M. Batista i Roca, University of Cambridge: Com Joan II d'Aragó reeixí a obtenir Isabel de Castella per al seu fill Ferran.

1-0 p.m.      Lunch. End of conference.

7-30 p.m.      Casals concert, Royal Festival Hall. (See note (c))
P.T.O.

---

If you are attending the Conference, would you please state (a) whether you will be present at the Annual Lunch and General Meeting.....; (b) whether you will require bed and breakfast at Connaught Hall on 27th and 28th September.....; (c) whether you will be having (i) supper at Connaught Hall on the 28th....., (ii) lunch (do.) on the 29th.....; (d) whether you wish to reserve a ticket or tickets for the Casals concert.....

Please return this slip to the Acting Secretary, D.A. Barrass Esq., 5, Lyndewode Road, Cambridge, to reach him by 12th September at the latest.

(Signed)

NOTES (a) It is hoped that arrangements for the Annual Lunch will be completed within the next few days. Members will be informed of the venue as soon as possible.

(b) Summaries of papers will be included in the next circular.

(c) As members will probably know, Pau Casals, the distinguished cellist and composer, is to conduct a performance of his oratorio, El Pessebre, at the Royal Festival Hall on Sunday, 29th September, beginning at 7-30 p.m. The Acting Secretary will have a limited number of 15/- tickets at his disposal for members who wish to attend the concert.

Mestre Casals has been invited to the Annual Lunch, and it is hoped that he may be able to address the Society (and possibly members of the public) at some time during the Saturday afternoon.

Yours sincerely,

Arthur Terry (President)